

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before the election is wrong. They should be severely sanctioned. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Serving the public interest does not include broadcasting biased political programming without affording equal time to the opposing view.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why their licenses ought not to be renewed. Thank you.
